Project Summary	With the help of the Susan G. Komen Foundation, Jefferson Regional Medical Center would like to continue to Reach Every Woman. This proven program improves access to care for uninsured or underinsured women by providing mammograms, ultrasounds, or special surgical services and radiology fees at no charge. An additional component of this grant includes visits to the four main high schools in the area, educating students on the importance of breast health as well as educating the women and men of South Arkansas at local health fairs.
